

Kinga SORBÁN LL.M., PhD.

Researcher

Research areas

- European media law and content regulation
- The role and liability of online platforms in the fight against content crime
- The impact of artificial intelligence on online crime

Important publications

1. Sorbán Kinga: Veszélyek a világhálón: az online platformok szerepe a modern büntetőjogban. Budapest, Magyarország: Ludovika Egyetemi Kiadó, 2024
2. Kinga Sorbán: An elephant in the room—EU policy gaps in the regulation of moderating illegal sexual content on video-sharing platforms, International Journal of Law and Information Technology 31 (3), 171-185, 2023
3. Kinga Sorbán: Responses to the proliferation of hate speech during the COVID-19 pandemic. In: Gergely, Gosztanyi; Elena, Lazar (eds.) Media Regulation During the Covid-19 Pandemic: A Study from Central and Eastern Europe; Ethics International, 2023
4. Kinga Sorbán: Ethical and legal implications of using AI-powered recommendation systems in streaming services, Információs Társadalom, 2021
5. Kinga Sorbán: The Evolution of Content-Related Offences and Their Investigation during the First 20 Years of the Cybercrime Convention. Hungarian Yearbook of International Law and European Law; Eleven International Publishing, 2021

Career

- January 2024 – July 2025: Permanent Representation of Hungary to the European Union, counsellor – telecommunications and information society
- July 2019 – University of Public Service, research fellow
- February 2015 – June 2019: National Media and Infocommunications Authority, expert on international affairs

2014 – 2015: Hungarian Public Administration Scholarship Programme, (Department of Public Administration and Justice, Budapest; Department for Business, Innovation and Skills, London)

Education

- 2022 – Eötvös Loránd University, Doctoral School of Law and Political Sciences, PhD, cybercrime
- 2018 – University of Pécs, Faculty of Law, LLM, lawyer specialized in ICT
- 2013 – Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, lawyer

Selected conferences and workshops

- organizer and moderator: Fundamental Rights in the Age of AI – Assessing the Impacts of AI in the Artificial Intelligence Act and Beyond, 26 September 2024, Budapest
- organizer and moderator: Workshop on digital governance models, 21 October 2024, Brussels
- organizer and moderator: Protection of minors vs. protection of data workshop, 4 December 2024, Budapest

Other

MTMT, LinkedIn